Mater Dei

St. Mary's High School

Orange, Texas

Volume 4 1961

They Dedicate

their lives in service to God and give us the strong foundation of truth to take and build our life on. As the structure of a building depends on its foundation, which is the basis of its very being, we depend on and are guided every day of our life by this foundation given to us by them.

We Dedicate

our annual, Mater Dei, to the Dominican Sisters for the tools they give us with which to build our own building tall and straight to reach the clouds of Heaven.

Song Contest

GAME SONG

When the St. Mary's Hornets
Come buzzing on the field,
The opponent to victory
will yield.

Win this game, give a cheer,
For the Hornet team is here;
And this victory
Will make history.

Raise your flags up high,
To show our blue and white
And then yell and yell
With all your might - fight, fight.

For our school, our fame
Victory is our aim
As the Saints go marching on.

ALMA MATER

Hail to our Alma Mater
Glory to thy name
Many loyal sons and daughters
Join to sing thy fame.

From ocean unto ocean
From dawn to setting sun
We'll tell of our devotion
And of our victories won.

Hail to St. Mary's High forever
On Hornets team
Hail to our Alma Mater
Loyal to thee.

FIGHT SONG

Fight for the victory
Boys of St. Mary's High
Keep the dear old St. Mary's Spirit
Keep on fighting, fighting, fighting.

We will be true to you
Even though you lose
Keep the dear old St. Mary's Spirit
Fight for Victory, Fight for victory, Now.

SCHOOL SONG

You're a grand old school,
You're a wonderful school,
And you always and always will be;

When we're with you,
Our dreams come true,
St. Mary's we're loyal to you;

We have watched you grow,
We have told you Hello;
And we never will say Good-bye;

Our hearts are true,
We're all for you,
St. Mary's will never die.

Initiation

"Paint it good, Jimmy," was a senior order.

This page is dedicated to the Freshmen to show the Seniors' appreciation to them for their good sportsmanship shown on Initiation Day.

Which is the girl?
Rosalie or Larry?

Bob Fore presents best dressed Freshmen, Bridget Rasberry, Tommy Reidmueller and Robert Simon with prizes.

Day was climaxed by a dance that night.

Football Season Brought

Pep Rallies,

"Okay, ready, HIT IT!"

Our cheerleaders lead students in yell at Homecoming pep rally.

Skits,

Cheerleaders, Jo Ann, Carol, Claudia, Sheila, and Kathy, each contributed a piece of equipment to make Taska a "full fledged Hornet."

A few of the Senior football boys presented a skit entitled "Going My Way." The Hornet machine consisted of two tires, Michael Hickey and Burke Gautreaux, and the chugging motor, Johnny Lucia. Bob Fore, the driver of the car, later made room for Miss Victory, Sam Lucia, by throwing out the Bulldog, Vic Herm.

Our Cheerleaders turned Hill Billy in the skit "3 Speeds." The scene was repeated three times, each time faster.

There he goes!

Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh-Bulldogs-Gotta-Go, was the chant of the Student Body around the Bonfire!

and a Bonfire.

The week before Homecoming a dummy representing the Bulldogs was hung in the school and burned the night of the bonfire.

Expressions of wonder, delight, and amazement were seen on the faces of the onlookers.

SHEILA DUCHAMP

Claudia Duhon, JoAnne Siegel, and Cheryl Culp were among the Homecoming candidates.

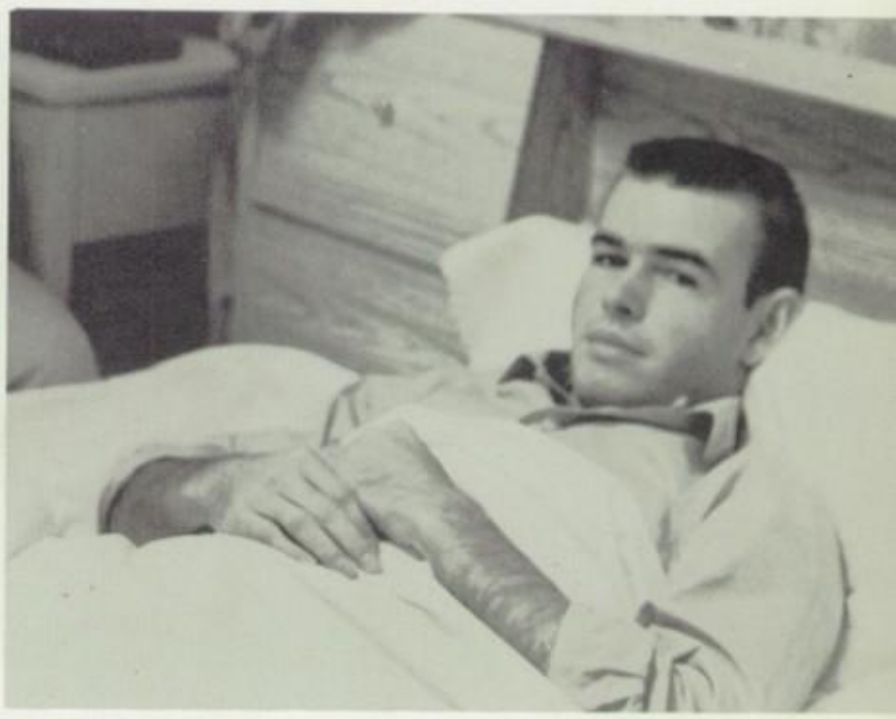
Freshman candidates: Rita Faye Luna and Bridget Rasberry.

On October 2, 1960, St. Mary's had its first Homecoming since 1953.

The Homecoming dance was enjoyed by everyone since the spirit of victory remained in the hearts of all.

This lucky hornet was uninjured until the buzzing team and cheerleaders burst through it.

This was the final home game for these football players: Sammy Lucia, Bobby Fore, John Lucia, and Michael Hickey.
BOTTOM: Victor Herm, Burke Gautreaux, and Billy Trahan.



A broken collar bone kept Ronnie Simar from playing in the Homecoming game.

Mr. Bill Kirn, representative of the Magazine Drive, shows Sam Lucia and Vic Herm some of the prizes to be awarded to the top salesmen.

Bob Fore proudly displays the plaque which he received as high salesman in the drive.

Father Berberich Blesses and Presents Pins to Juniors

Just as the Seniors look forward to getting their rings, the big event in the Junior year is the receiving of class pins. On these pins is the Veritas shield and a chain connects this shield to a gold 62 which is the year of their graduation.

As Father Joe hands Marion Tindall his pin, Lesylee Prejean and Kenneth Blanchard admire theirs.

We Had a "Clean-Up Day"

The old tin shed gets the once-over from Darrell Lawrence and Freddie Dunlap.

The problem of eye-strain to see our school through the weeds was solved when Billy Trahan and Brud Suire helped "mow 'em down."

On December 9, volunteers reported for "Clean-up Day." Jobs ranging from painting to mowing to scrubbing were undertaken by members of the Student Body. At the end of the day, everyone's co-operation and hard work was apparent as St. Mary's was cleaner than ever!

Even minor details such as tar drippings were taken care of by Jerry Mires and Ronnie Legnion.

The inside as well as the outside of the High School shone at the end of "Clean-up Day." Senior girls shining up their home room are A. Ragusa, C. Rolando, M. Bourleia, G. Hutchinson, F. Legnion, and S. Duchamp.

Sheila Duchamp was chosen football sweetheart by the members of the team.

Father Joe presents Sam Lucia with "Most Valuable Player" trophy.

Football Banquet

Gorden Baxter, the guest speaker, added humor to evening.

Coach Fontenot presents Burke Gautreaux with football jacket. 19 team members and cheerleaders received jackets that night.

Entertainment

These three groups of Seniors participated in the entertainment for the Chili Supper. These were the Waltz, Chaipenecas, and the Old Man's Dance.

Chili Supper

On February 1, 1961, the Seniors sponsored their annual Chili Supper. Through the cooperation of Sister Genevieve, the mothers, and the Senior Class, we cleared $438.65.

Father Starkey gets excellent service from a group of Seniors.

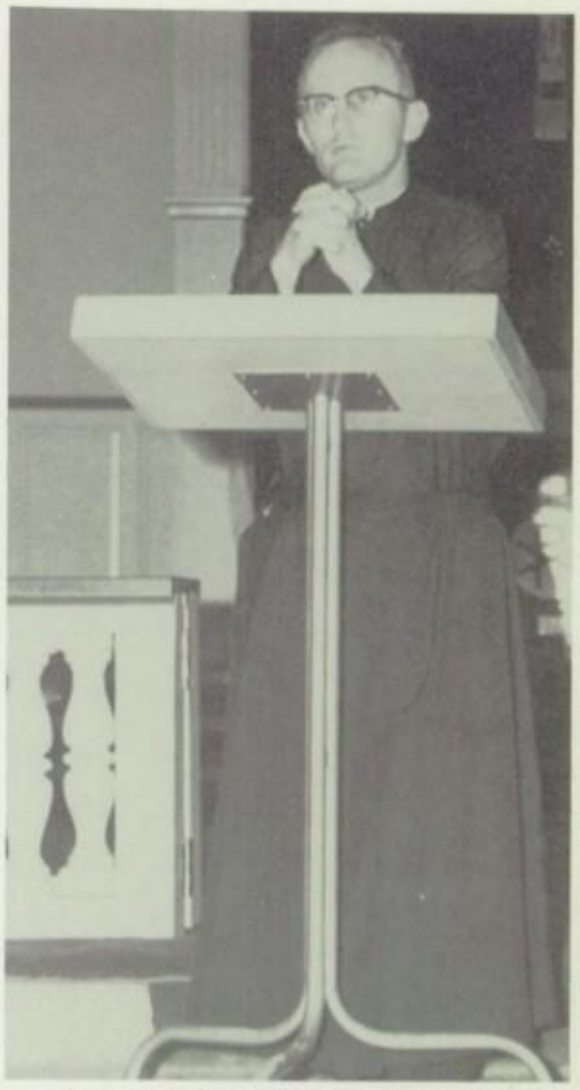
These are some of our satisfied customers.

Retreat — A Special Time of Prayer

Students, Peggy Foreman, Johnnie Egan, Burke Gautreaux, and Ronnie Peveto welcomed Father Coles.

The retreat is a special time of prayer and meditation which the students look forward to after the hard strain of examinations.

Some took advantage of the time set aside for spiritual reading.



Reverend E. Coles, Retreat Master.

The Retreat began on Sunday, Feb. 19, and ended Tuesday, Feb. 21.

After lunch the Senior boys played the Junior boys in a game of baseball. Who won? They're still undecided.

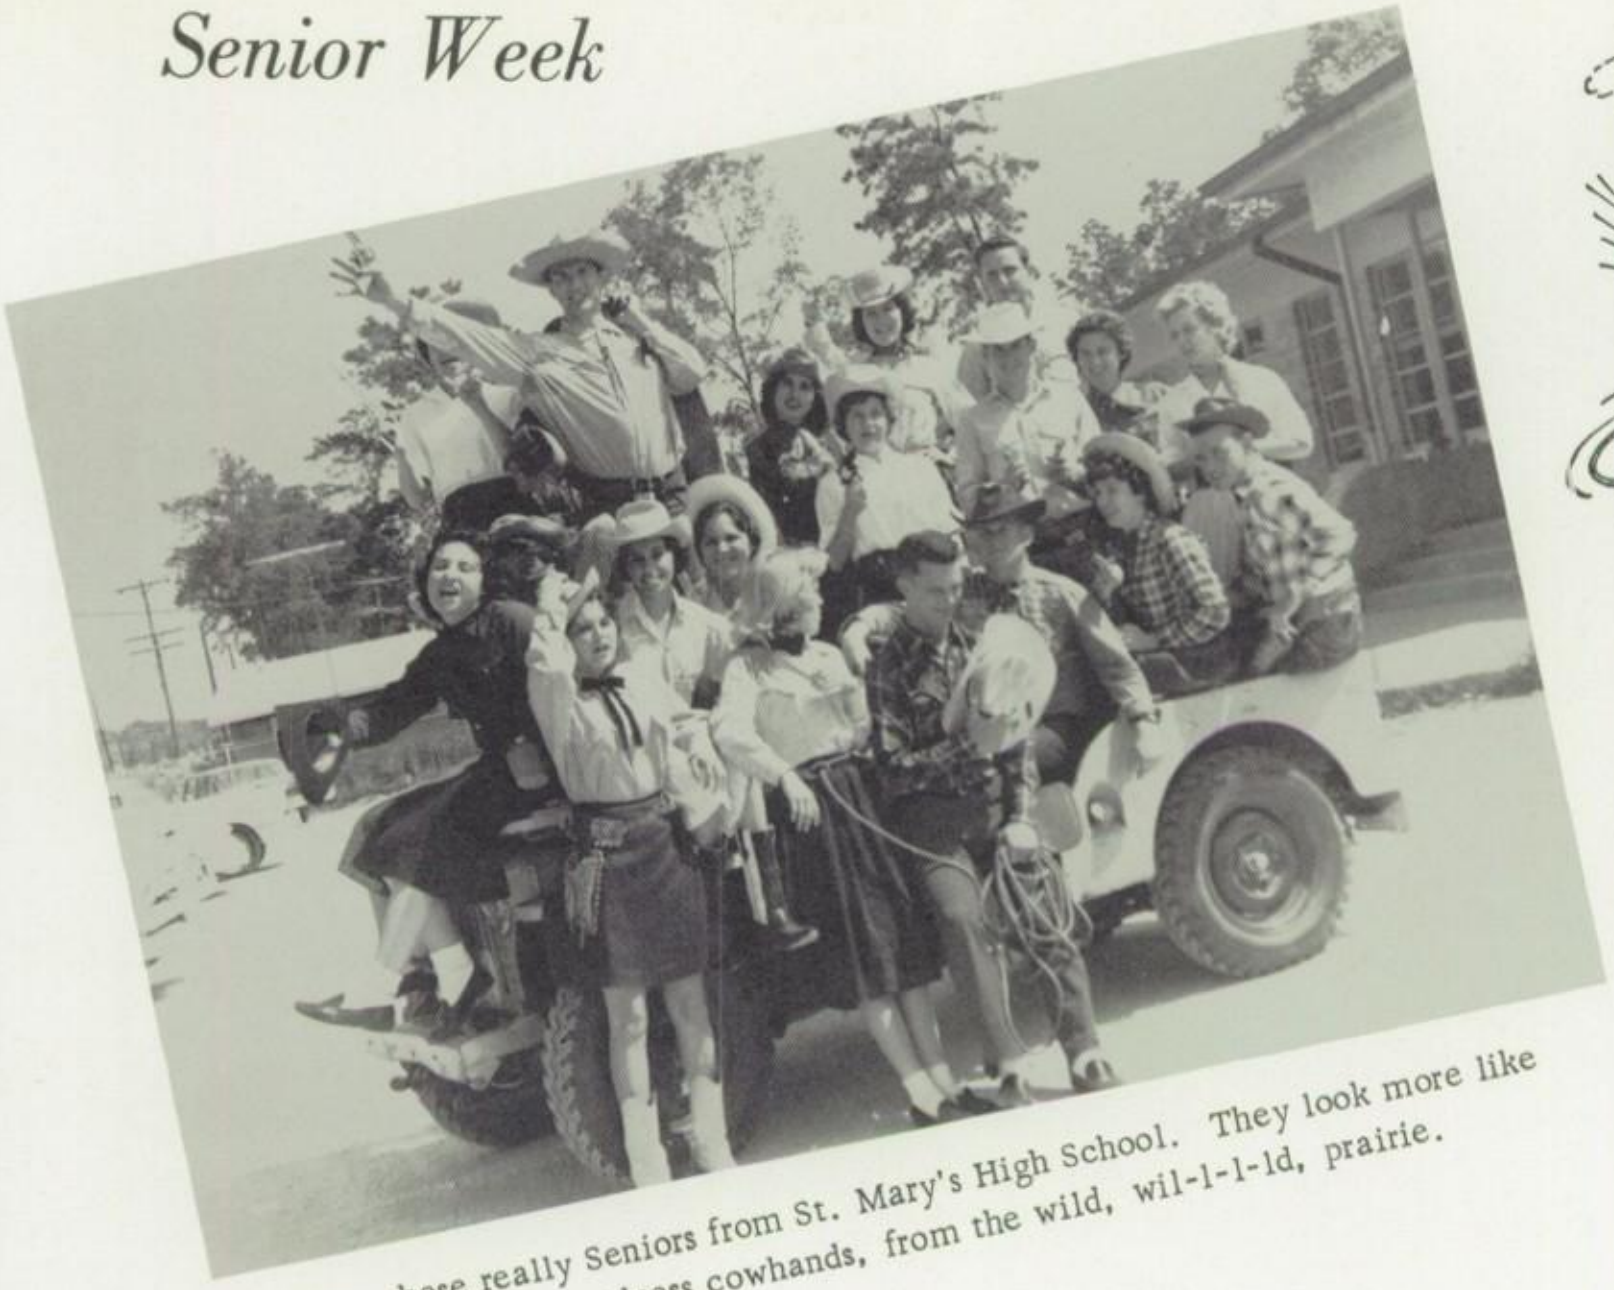
Senior Week

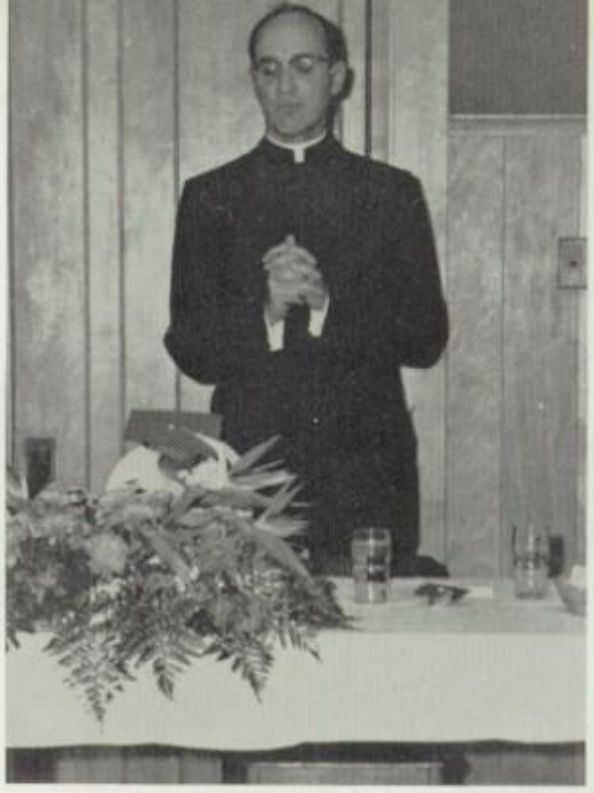


Are these really Seniors from St. Mary's High School. They look more like real honest to goodness cowhands, from the wild, wil-l-l-ld, prairie.

"Tacky Day" was also another big event. But the faculty seemed most pleased with the Seniors on "Dress Up Day."

Childhood memories romped through Senior minds on Kid's Day.

Senior Banquet



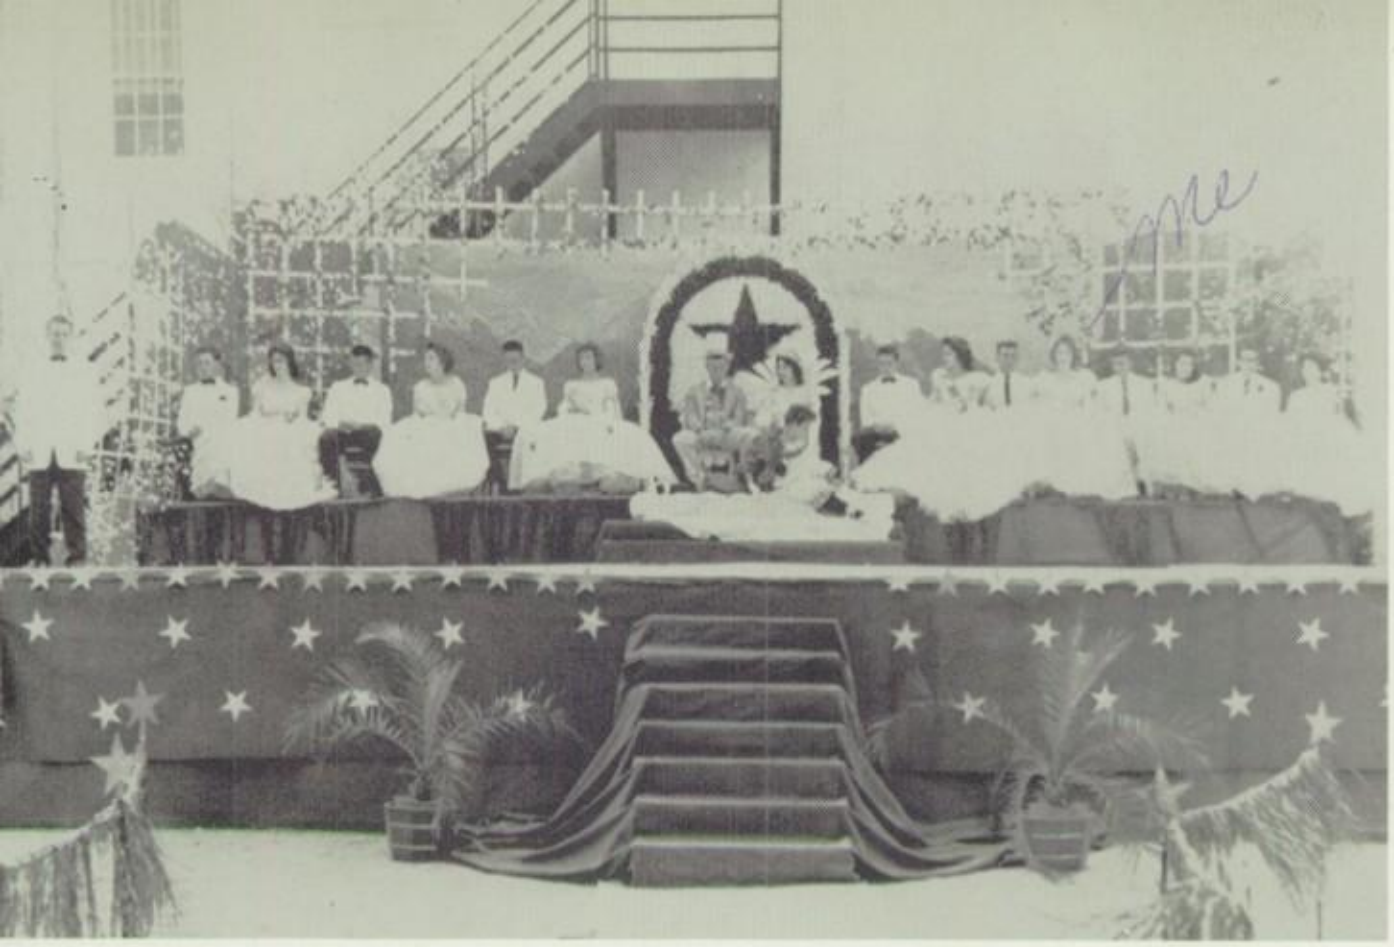
Father Starkey was the guest speaker.

Salad	Fried Chicken
Green Peas	Rolls
Mashed Potatoes	Iced Tea
	Peach Cobbler

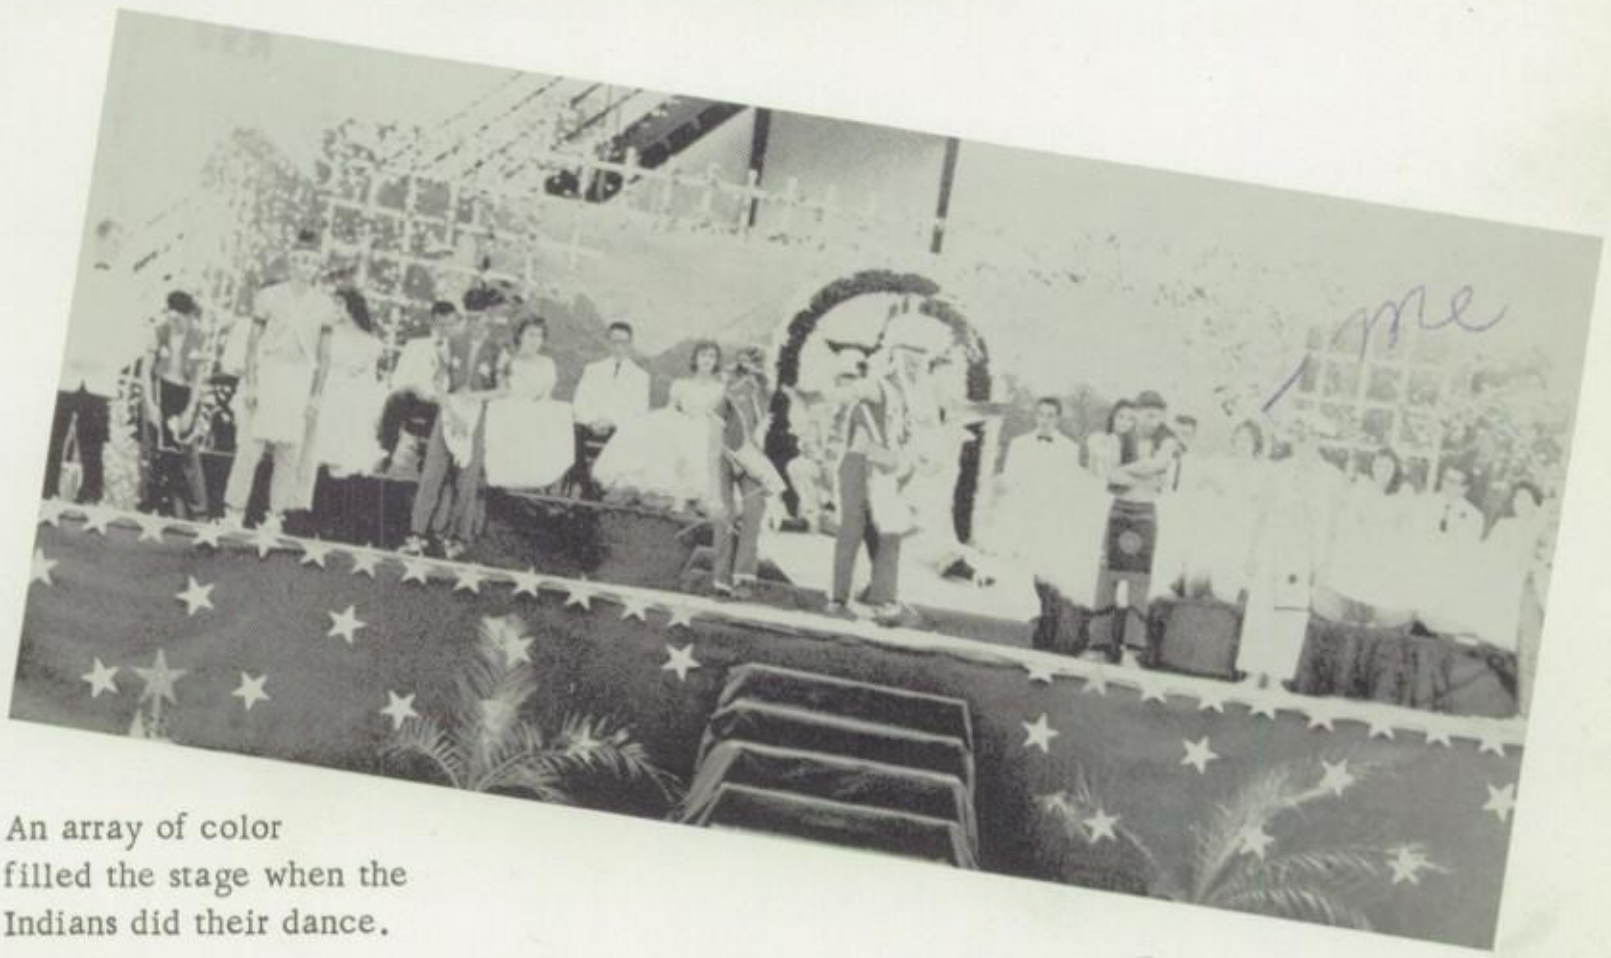
The Senior Banquet was given by the Sophomores at Little Mexico, on May 18.

Seated at the head table were Rev. Joseph Berberich, Rev. Donald Starkey, Rev. Charles Burns, Mr. James Quigley, and Mr. T. L. Gunn, who is not pictured.

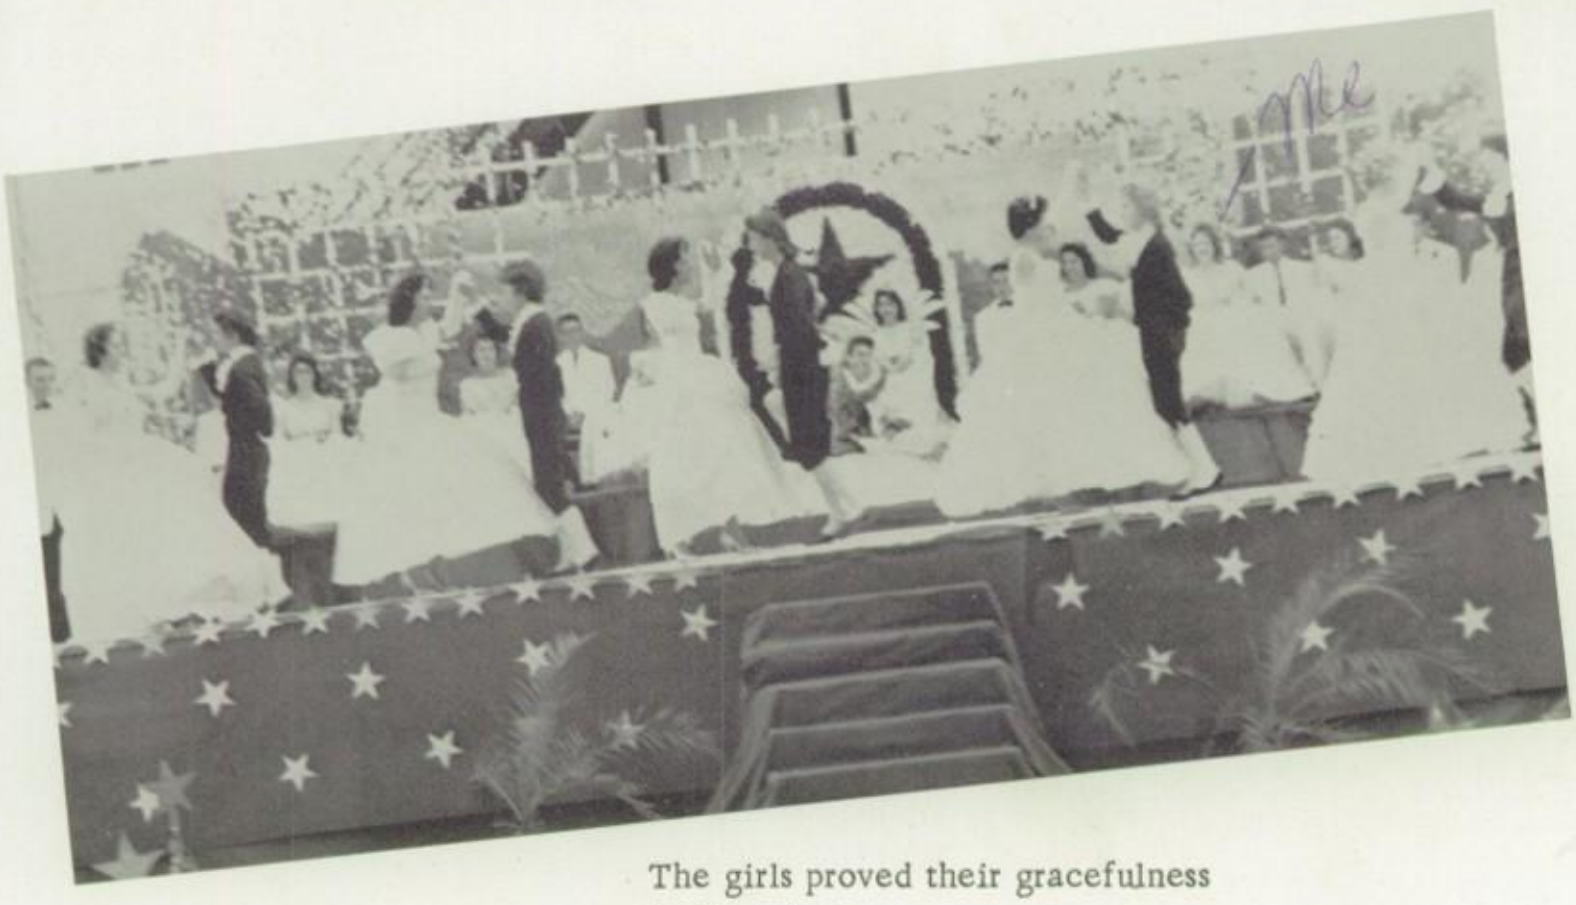
Festival



Queen Liberty, Anna Mae Ragusa, reigned over the festival.



An array of color filled the stage when the Indians did their dance.



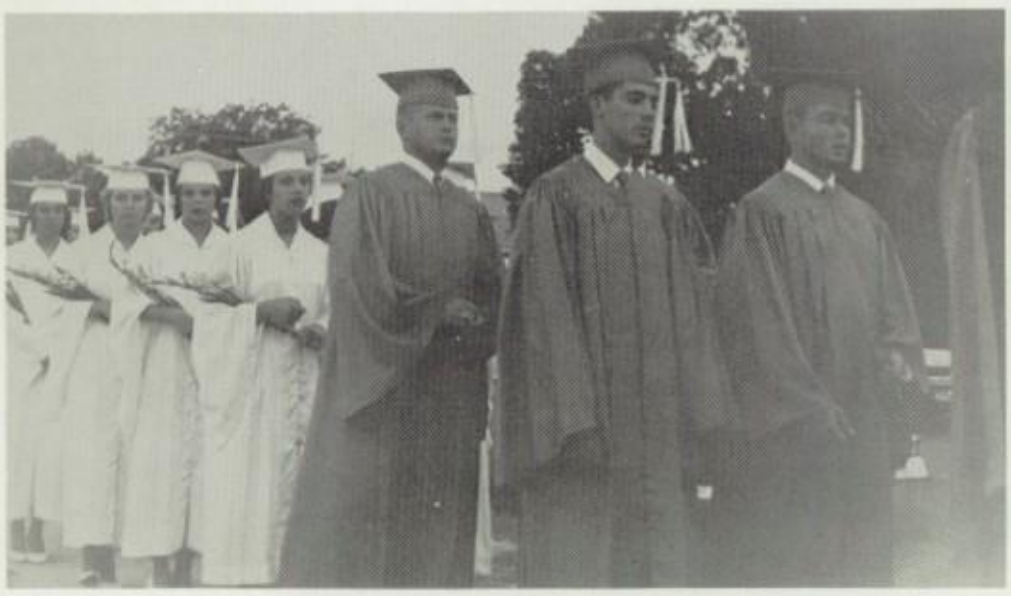
The girls proved their gracefulness in the minuet.

Other dances in the program were the Square Dance (above) presented by the Juniors; the Cake Walk (above right) presented by the Freshmen and the eighth grade; and, the waltz (right).

May Crowning

All high school and grammar school students participated in the May Crowning of the Blessed Mother. A bouquet was made through the presentation of a gladiola by each Senior girl.

Taska Rougeau, Prefect of the Girls' Sodality, crowned the Blessed Mother.



Seniors in procession wait to enter Church.

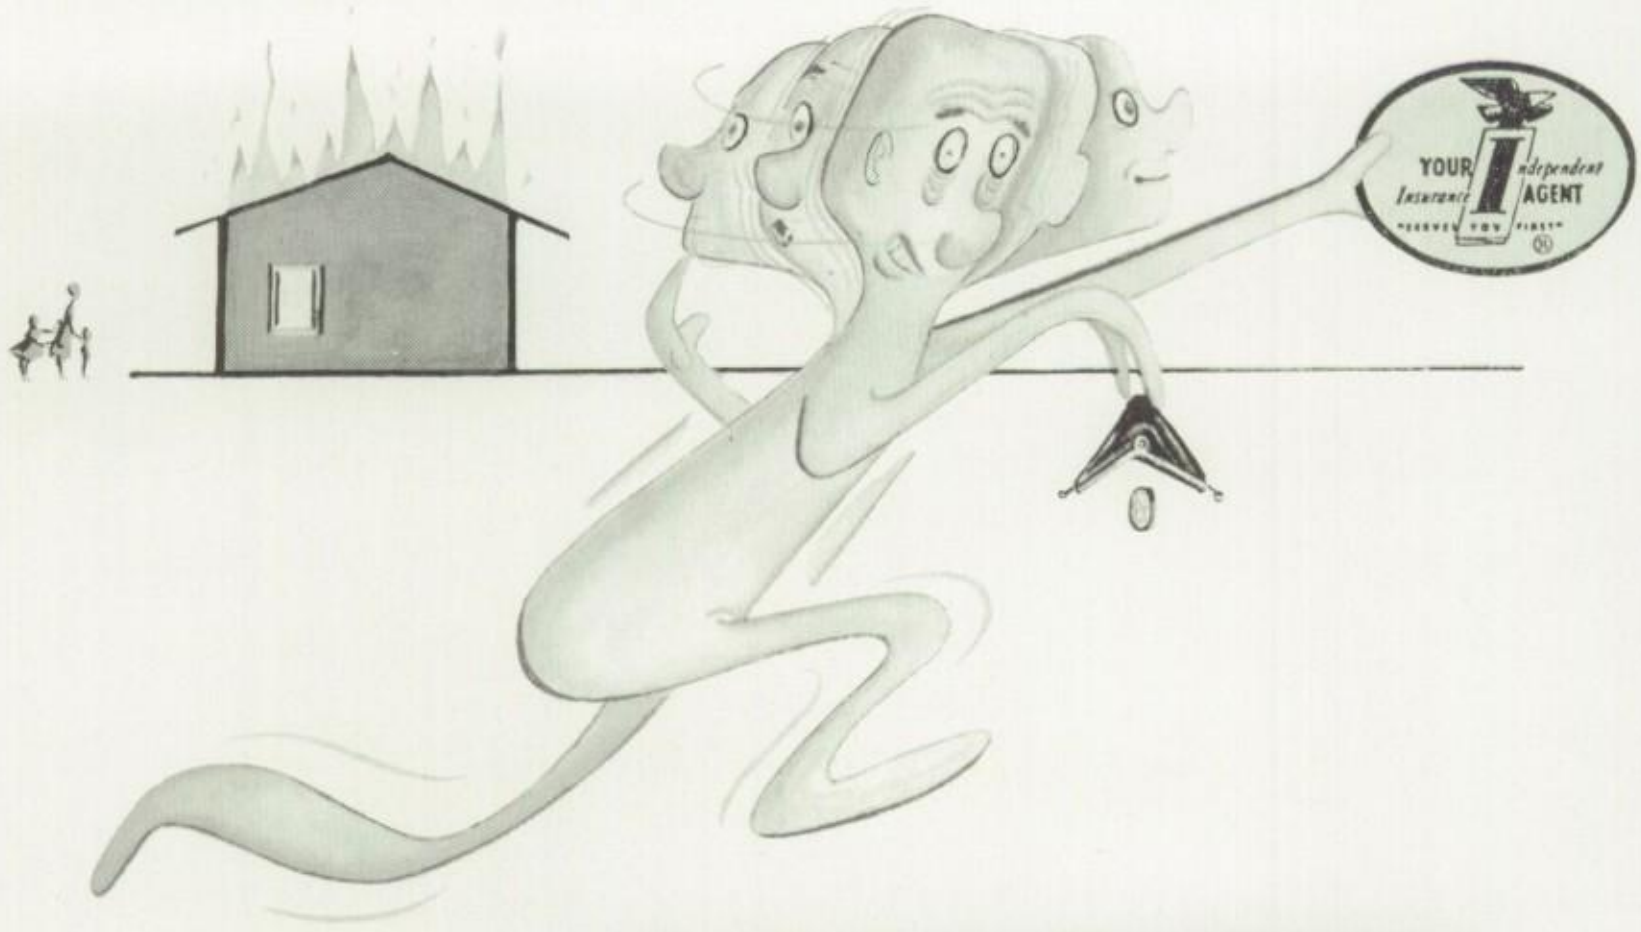
GAME OF YOUR LIFETIME!



FORESIGHT
vs.
HINDSIGHT

Favored to win this and every lifetime, is the product of Wisdom High, Foresight. Wisdom always starts their team early in life and teaches them to look forward at all times.

Hindsight is the underdog but has many more members because it seems so easy to make the team . . . no practice, no discipline, but no victories either.

Insurance works with Foresight in the absolute wisest way for those who want to work on the winning team. You're young . . . get started early with Zeto and Lakin Insurance Agency as a teammate to lessen the chance of a close shave with Hindsight.
